

Tuck Everlasting,
Natalie Babbitt

PROMPT: The constable took Winnie back to her family after discovering her at the Tuck's home. Her family was extremely excited to have her back home. They also thought that Winnie had changed since she had been gone. Do you think Winnie has changed since being kidnapped by the Tuck family? Use evidence from the story to support your answer.

Yes, MA'AM Constructed Response

- M Winnie has changed since being kidnapped by the Tuck family.
- A According to the passage, Winnie's family sensed she was different now from what she had been before, as if some part of her had slipped away.
- A The text also states that Winnie felt new threats now, which tied her just as firmly to the Tucks.
- M These details show the Tuck family made an impression on Winnie because she has feelings for them just like her own family.