

Colorful Sentences

Colorful Sentences adds a fun element to the daunting task of writing more. Encourage students to write multiple sentences by offering them the use of different colored gel pens. For every additional sentence students write on a topic, they get to switch their pen colors.

A boy on my bus told me how to pull my tooth out.

He told me to
pull a little bit
hard, then harder,
then riley hard.

That was a little left. I yanked
it out.
