

The Slurp! Creation of Coca-Cola

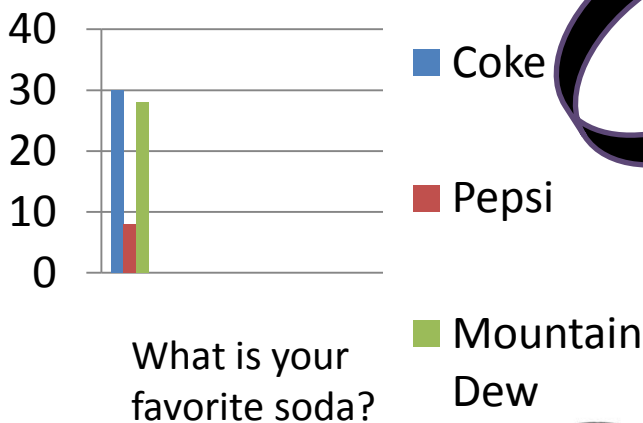

Bibliography

So Fizzy...

Have you ever wondered what the history is of one of the most popular drinks? Coca-Cola was invented in 1886. It was invented by a man named Dr. John Stith Pemberton.

- Every second, 7,000 Coca-Cola products are consumed worldwide.
- In 1886, John Pemberton spent more money in advertising than he actually made.
- The first Coca-Cola sign ever painted is located in Cartersville, Georgia.
- Diet coke is the most popular diet cola in the world.

When Pemberton had it sampled, the people who tried it said it was "excellent". It was five cents per glass. Later, a man named Asa Candler bought the coke company. He was a marketing genius and came up with it being packaged in red containers and more.
