

F.A.S.T. FACTS

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT

Feelings

- Everyone liked living on their neat street where all the houses are the same.
- The neighbors were irritated when Mr. Plumbean wouldn't fix the orange splot on his house.

Actions

- The neighbors pretended not to notice Mr. Plumbean's house after he painted it.
- The neighbors shouted when one neighbor also painted his house.
- They, one by one, went to talk with Mr. Plumbean.
- The neighbors changed their houses to fit their dreams.

Speech

- "He popped his cork, flipped his wig, blown his stack, dropped his stopper."
- "He gushed his mush, lost his marbles, slipped his hawser."
- "He has bees in his bonnet, bats in his belfry, and knots in his noodle."
- "Our street is us and we are it. Our street is where we like to be."

Thoughts

- All houses have to be the same to have a neat street.