

Planning & Facilitating a Close Reading

SIMPLE & EFFECTIVE STRATEGIES TO IMPROVE ACHIEVEMENT IN READING

Online Workshop Overview

There has been much talk about raising the complexity of the texts students are reading. However, rigorous reading isn't just about the text selection. It's also about targeting multi-faceted, deep thinking during reading. This online workshop will help teachers plan and facilitate a meaningful close reading in four steps.

Workshop Topics

- Dissect the reading standards for the close-reading expectations.
- Identify how and when close reading should be incorporated into the curriculum.
- Learn how to assess a text's complexity beyond simply looking at its reading level.
- Plan text-dependent questions that keep students rooted in the text.
- Recognize the role of pre-reading/background-building in close-reading experiences.
- Examine a variety of reader tools and technology that allow students to annotate print and digital texts.
- Acquire prompts and cues to help students address their own confusions and misunderstandings about the reading.

When you complete the online workshop you'll be able to

- ▶ Determine if a text is complex and worthy of a close reading.
- ▶ Introduce close reading to students in a variety of kid-friendly ways.
- ▶ Prepare a set of text-dependent questions that keep students rooted in the text and follow the same sequence as standardized reading assessments.
- ▶ Teach students ways to track and annotate the journey of their thinking.
- ▶ Facilitate text-based conversations that require textual evidence.

WORKSHOP OUTLINE

Define close reading

- Experience a close reading
- Utilize the 3-phase framework

Integrate close reading

- Introduce framework to students
- Weave in close-reading experiences

Plan a close reading

- STEP 1: Select a complex text

Direct Ties to Standards

The strategies shared during this webAcademy online workshop target the reading and writing standards outlined within the College & Career-Ready Standards.

What others say about Kristina's workshops

“I love the energy and the examples of students in the classroom were realistic and relatable which made the material seem plausible in my own classroom.”

Brittany Sylvia, teacher at Anderson High School, Anderson, IN

“I am especially excited to use the info on how to use close reading in content areas! Kristina, thank you for getting me amped about reading again! (I taught kindergarten for 10 years—and wish I'd had this info then!)”

Sara Fithian, teacher at Hebron Elementary School, Evansville, IN

“I will be sharing several takeaways with not only the reading teachers—but the science and social studies teachers. The secret site is extremely helpful and current. Kristina was so entertaining and current. She spoke to all levels of learning. Her knowledge of the material and the standards was spot on. I will be recommending her workshops to fellow educators.” Julie Wandrie, teacher at Saint Paul Lutheran School, Westlake, OH

Why learn more about close reading?

1. Close reading is key to college and career readiness.

Research shows that even our brightest students are struggling with college-level courses because they lack the skills to read and understand complex text. Kristina will provide practical ways to engage students in close reading so that they have the skills to ultimately tackle any complex text independently.

2. Planning and facilitating a close reading needs to be intentional.

Achieving a close reading of complex text is largely about asking the right questions at the right time. Kristina will guide teachers to first generate questions that determine what the text says and culminate with questions that determine why the text matters.

3. Writing in response to text improves comprehension.

Writing a brief constructed response or a coherent extended response to complex text is an important facet of the close-reading process. Kristina will share dozens of after-reading writing prompts that require students to demonstrate a deep understanding of the text.

Top questions teachers ask about . . .

Planning & facilitating a close reading

- ▶ What is close reading and how is it different than what I've always done?
- ▶ How do I go about selecting appropriate texts for a close reading?
- ▶ How can I introduce complex text into my curriculum when I have so many struggling readers?
- ▶ How long does close reading take and how often do I plan for it?
- ▶ What's a text-dependent question? Is there a list of such questions? How are these questions different than QAR (question-answer relationship)?

Kristina provides the answers to these questions and many more!

Continuing Education Credit

With prior approval from the registrant's school district, participants may receive credit for 5 hours of professional development for this webAcademy online workshop. Attendees who view each of the workshop videos in their entirety may download a certificate after completing the online workshop. For possible Illinois-approved credit, please contact our office—support@smekenseducation.com or call (888) 376-0448.

Graduate-Level Units

Thanks to a partnership with the University of the Pacific, educators who complete each of the videos in a webAcademy workshop are eligible to pursue 1, 2, or 3 nationally-accredited graduate-level semester units. The cost of graduate-level units ($62 per unit) is separate from the cost of the online workshop.

Graduate-level units offered through the University of the Pacific are non-degree units which are designed for professional certification renewals and salary step increases. (The units are post-baccalaureate professional development semester units of non-degree graduate level and are not applicable to a degree at University of the Pacific.) ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Kristina Smekens

Kristina Smekens is a full-time literacy consultant who has built a reputation for using enthusiasm, humor, and common sense to equip K-12 educators with practical, demystifying strategies for teaching reading and writing.

As president and lead consultant for Smekens Education, Kristina is constantly developing new strategies for helping teachers to meet the demands of today's College and Career-Ready Standards. She and her associates share those strategies with teachers across the United States and beyond through on-site professional development, regional seminars, and an always-growing pool of print, digital, and video resources.

A PRESENTER

Kristina has a gift for making the complex seem simple—for showing teachers how to meet the needs of readers and writers by bridging the gap between education research and practical, classroom-tested strategies that work. When she presents at state and national conferences, teachers flock to her sessions because they know Kristina will share strategies they can use in their own classrooms the very next day.

But beyond providing teachers with practical classroom techniques, Kristina is also a master at giving educators the motivation and encouragement they need to return to their classrooms with confidence and excitement to execute change. To stay connected, Kristina sends out a weekly newsletter, "Big Ideas." Thousands of teachers watch their email each Tuesday for it to arrive.

AN AUTHOR

Well known for offering innovative ideas, Kristina has created more than 50 "Smekens Originals," a compilation of books, guides, and classroom tools designed to help teachers implement best-practice literacy strategies. Among the most popular of these resources are her best-selling books, Launching the Writer's Workshop: Grades K-2 and Grades 3-12. Other popular publications include The Trait Mate: 6-Traits Starter Lessons, Connecting Comprehension

& Composition, Sing & Comprehend, Close Reading Questions for Literature, Close Reading Questions for Informational Text, Trait Trackers, and Serving Up Synthesis. Additionally, Kristina is the author of Trait-Based Writing: Lessons and Activities (Scholastic, 2009).

A CRAFTER

Beyond books and physical teacher tools, Kristina has also created a library of on-demand professional learning videos that are utilized by teachers around the world. With topics ranging from "Building Kid-Friendly Writing Rubrics" to "Achieving a Close Reading," each of Kristina's "webPD" videos uses a seminar-style format to capture her energy and enthusiasm while conveying her teacher-friendly ideas.

BACKGROUND

Kristina earned her BA in English and education at Michigan State University. Prior to her full-time consulting career, she was an accomplished high school English and journalism teacher in Michigan and Indiana. A leader in state and national scholastic journalism endeavors, Kristina authored a journalism textbook and teachers' guide for Walsworth Publishing in 2002.

Over the years, she has been blessed to work and learn with hundreds of schools and thousands of teachers throughout the Midwest. She was awarded the Excellence in Reading Award by the Indiana State Reading Association in 2013 for her contributions to literacy in Indiana.

Kristina lives in Warren, Indiana with her husband and business partner Brady, their three teenage children, and a rambunctious family dog named Buddy.

"Kristina just takes the guess work out of everything to make it ALL make sense!"

Nicki King, teacher, Union Furnace Elementary, Logan, OH

"Oh. My. Goodness. Kristina is an amazing and entertaining presenter! Her energy is SO motivating and inspirational! Loved it ALL!"

Staci Rooze, teacher at Wea Ridge Middle School, Lafayette, IN

"Kristina was fantastic! I learned new and exciting strategies to improve student writing."

Jenae McKnight, instructional coach, Lake Ridge New Tech Schools, Gary, IN

"I feel more prepared to dig deeper into skills that will help my students perform better on state testing. These skills will also help my students become better reading and writers."

Megan Joseph, teacher at Warren Middle School, Vincent, OH

"Kristina covered every topic I needed to bring back with me. I will be sharing several takeaways with not only the reading teachers—but the science and social studies teachers. She spoke to all levels of learning. Her knowledge of the material and the standards was spot on."

Julie Wandrie, teacher at Saint Paul Lutheran School, Westlake, OH

"After 33 years of teaching, I still am drawn back into Kristina's workshops because they are research-based, standards-focused, and very interactive."

Katie Cadle, teacher, Paoli Community Schools, Paoli, IN
